

De Rerum Natura Luxury Apartments

a window on the Euganean Hills

De rerum Natura is an accommodation facility located in a prestigious Art Nouveau villa built in the early 1900s by a General of the Italian Army, immediately after the First World War. The building has been completely and carefully renovated at the end of 2023.

Inside the Regional Park of the Euganean Hills (www.parcocollieuganei.com), De Rerum Natura is located in a natural environment of rare beauty. Enchanting corners of preserved nature and picturesque historic villages can be found along many paths and trails that can be discovered in the Park both on foot or by mountain bike.

Golf lovers can play, surrounded by nature, in three courses: Frassanelle (18 holes), Montecchia (27 holes) and Valsanzibio (27 holes).

Make your stay in the Euganean Hills even more satisfying by appreciating tasty local food and wines excellences.

The strategic location allows quick trips to the nearby city of Padua, Venice and Vicenza, all included in the UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Three brand new, comfortable and luxurious suites each with living room, equipped with kitchen, bedroom, bathroom and terrace or balcony, are available for our guests (families or couples). One of these also includes the prestigious tower from where enjoy a breathtaking view.

A prestigious restaurant on the ground floor ensures a memorable stay.
